STANDING ORDER REGARDING INITIAL DISCOVERY PROTOCOLS IN CERTAIN PROPERTY DAMAGE SUITS ARISING FROM HURRICANES IDA

This Court hereby ORDERS the that the following protocols for initial discovery disclosure (“Disaster Protocols”) shall be observed in all cases involving first-party insurance property damage claims arising from Hurricane Ida (“Hurricane Cases”):

Within 45 days after the defendant’s submission of a responsive pleading or motion, the parties must exchange any documents or information categorized under the Disaster Protocols, for any such time periods identified in the Disaster Protocols. All parties shall remain under an ongoing duty to supplement these responses. No extension or delay in the time to file responsive pleadings shall extend the Disclosure Deadline to more than 90 days from the service of the petition unless the extension is by the consent of all parties or pursuant to an express Order of this Court extending the Disclosure Deadline. A supplemental response is due 21 days prior to mediation.

A party may object to disclosure of these initial discovery materials only if the material falls within one of the categories specifically enumerated in the Disaster Protocols – including, but not limited to, attorney-client privileged material, or work-product protection, including any joint defense agreement. Should any party raise such an objection, the non-disclosing party shall provide a log of all material being withheld from disclosure, which shall include the specific grounds upon which the disclosure is being withheld.

If any party believes that there is good cause why a particular case should be exempted from the Disaster Protocols, in whole or in part, that party must file their objection with the court prior to the expiration of the 45-day period set forth herein.

If responsive pleadings have previously been filed in a case, these Disclosures are due 30 days after receipt of this Case Management Order in the case, the Clerk shall transmit it to all counsel.

SO ORDERED on this 21st day of November, 2022, at Luling, Louisiana.
